MINUTES

8 The Board of Podiatric Medicine held a public teleconference meeting Friday, November 7, 9 2003 pursuant to Government Code Section 11123(b) to consider and possibly override the 10 decision of disapproval issued by the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs on 11 October 7, 2003 of the Board's proposed amendments and additions to its regulations found in 12 Title 16, Division 13.9, Article 9. Information Disclosure. Due notice had been sent to all 13 known interested parties and posted on the Internet. The Public Access locations were:
14

- 15 • 388 Genevieve Avenue, Pacifica
16 • Legal Office, Department of Consumer Affairs, 400 R Street, Room 3090, Sacramento
17 • 9822 Las Tunas Drive, Temple City
18 • 3200 Kearney, Fremont
19 • 6300 Wilshire Boulevard, Suite 610, Los Angeles
20

21 President Kronenberg convened the meeting at 8:47 AM. Ms. Kronenberg, Dr. Naylor, Dr.
22 Weinstein, and Mr. Cheng responded to the Member Roll Call to establish a quorum. Also 23 participating were Executive Officer Jim Rathlesberger and Legal Counsel George Ritter. There
24 was no other attendance at any of the teleconference sites.
25

26 Following Mr. Ritter's introductory remarks, Dr. Naylor moved to override the decision of 27 disapproval issued by the Director of the Department of Consumer Affairs on October 7, 2003.
28

29 Dr. Weinstein seconded the motion. The President invited discussion of the motion but there
30 was none. At that point, Ms. Kronenberg called for a roll call vote, in which the Members voted 31 unanimously 4-0 to approve the motion.
32

33 With all business completed, the Board adjourned at 8:55 AM.
